Risk assessment:

For health and safety reasons we must insist that the competition be conducted under the conditions of your own site specific risk assessments. Please complete this table to confirm that the risk assessments have been completed and that you will make the trainer/assessors aware of risk assessments and their content before commencing the tests.

Disclaimer

Please note that (other than for personal injury and/or death due to our negligence) we do not accept any liability for injury to the participants in this challenge (whether the claim be for breach of contract, liability in tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty and/or liability under any other legal basis). We strongly advise that any participants who have an underlying injury and/or medical conditions which may affect their performance seek medical advice before participating. It is your responsibility to draw this paragraph to the attention of any individual who is participating in the challenge at your centre.

Results

The names, ranking and times of participants in the lifeguard triathlon will be listed on ISRM's and IQL's websites during and after the event. If you do not wish any of your centre's participants' details to be listed in this way, please confirm this in writing to ISRM at the address shown at the time of your application. Please note, participants who opt out of the ranking system through this mechanism will not be eligible to receive participation certificates or any other prize or award.
